

NEW SPECIAL NEEDS WEBSITE HELPS PARENTS UNDERSTAND THEIR CHILD'S LEGAL RIGHTS

by Karen Demeter

April 15, 2011

A new website launched by Littman Krooks, a law firm that specializes in special needs planning and special education advocacy, addresses the concerns of individuals with autism, Down syndrome, cerebral palsy, MS, and a wide array of other disabilities. The site is designed to help parents understand their child's legal rights and advises them on how to establish a financial foundation for their child. Their goal is to make families aware of the tools that may be at their disposal-free and appropriate education, public benefits, and social services. Visit www.specialneedsny.com.

Also see: Our Special Needs Section, for insight and advice from parents and experts throughout the New York metro area