

NEW!!
LAUNCHING THIS FALL

Trailblazers at the JCC

An After School Social Skills Program for Children with Special Needs

Help your K-5th grader develop friendships and relationships!

- 3 to 5 days a week
 - Wrap-around program: communication with school systems and service providers to provide comprehensive support
 - Transportation from most local schools
 - Monthly specialty classes (aikido, yoga, drama, music)
 - Opportunities for inclusion
-
- Includes snack and homework help
 - “Organized” free play: small group activities, cooking, music, outdoor play, social skills training, Legos[®], art, music and more
 - Flexible pickup time between 5:30 and 6:30 p.m.
 - Staffed by a certified special educator and an assistant, supervised by a certified social worker
 - 1:1 support is available as needed

Fall Semester: Three days/week: $165/child; Five days/week: $200/child

Trailblazers at the RJCC follows the After School Program calendar

Facilitator: Rosemarie Masci, MEd

For an interview, contact Robin Gersten at (914) 741-0333 or Robin@rosenthaljcc.org

This project is made possible through a generous grant from the J.E. & Z.B. Butler Foundation through UJA-Federation of New York.